

4-Tier Editing – Urban Publishing House

Tier 1: Manuscript Critique: The author's manuscript is thoroughly reviewed by an editor who will discuss (written comments included) with the author the content, lines of argument in the author's discourse, and suggested improvements to greater get the author's intended message across. The author is free to accept or reject suggestions and publish the material based upon the author's original intentions. Only a verbal critique with a one-on-one interview with will be made at this time.

Tier 1 focuses on the "big picture" and overall structure of the manuscript to increase the book's marketability and readability. It is for those who want to better their ideas into words.

Tier 1: Manuscript Critique	$0.00 per word – MS Word Document
------------------------------------	---

Tier 2: Comprehensive Edit: The author's editor will complete a general edit of the manuscript for the author's review. After the author has reviewed all the discussed changes in the first round of editing (Manuscript Critique), and made any necessary changes based on the discussion from the editor during the Manuscript Edit interview, the author will submit the revised manuscript for the third round of editing (Line/Copy Edit).

Tier 2: Comprehensive Edit	$0.00 per word – MS Word Document
-----------------------------------	---

Tier 3: Line/Copy Editing: The editor will review each line of the manuscript. The author's editor will improve the flow and readability of the author's work so that each line is clearly understood by the reader. Grammar, syntax, etc. are corrected. Unclear or verbose sentences are rewritten, voice and tense changes are made, paragraphs and transitions between thoughts and chapters are improved.

Tier 3: Line/Copy Editing	$0.00 per word – MS Word Document
----------------------------------	---

Tier 4: Proofread Editing: Once the author reviews the last round of editing (Proofread Editing), the author will approve or reject the manuscript one final time.

Tier 4: Proofread Editing	$0.00 per word – MS Word Document
----------------------------------	---